

Wesley G. Freeman

Email: weslev.freeman163@gmail.com

Phone: (704) 477-0843

Education:

Hampton University, Hampton, VA
Bachelors of Science, Computer Science

May 2022

Experience:

Independent Testing & Validation – Wells Fargo, Charlotte, NC

06/2022-10/2025

- Independent Testing and Validation – Banking regulations and legislation reviews and make the decision to implement monitors to reduce risk by error.
- Manage enterprise-level risk by implementing procedure that follows regulatory guidelines; monitor current risk mitigation strategies
- Testing Process from planning through execution of data testing
- Data driven development leveraging Python
- Using functions aggregating data with SQL and SAS
- Display information in visual presentation using Microsoft Power Platform
- Servicing lines of business through data driven strategies to streamline data management
- Automation of user interface using Python Windows library; Automate browser using script as frontend/backend data collection to documentation output
- Interface data to visual organization for line of business with information displayed by their progress and status.
- Maintaining data privacy through means of redaction and black-box technique
- Data Priority and Value; Confidentiality, Integrity, and Availability at enterprise level environment
- Workload includes testing and utilizing technologies such as computer programming and Microsoft Office to deliver results based on data.
- Using open-source technologies to develop automated processes for the bank's various lines of business.

AWS Development – Charlotte, NC

04/2020

- Programming using AWS Lambda, infrastructure, and software as a service trained artificial intelligence model for a library of information about college campus to deliver to incoming freshmen students.
- APIs provided by Amazon Web Service to provision accounts across teams and enabled access credentials to individuals.
- Using AWS Infrastructure as resources to expedite deployment of applications
- Develop pipeline to move data between client and server during maintenance and during application runtime.
- Develop solutions and presentation using different Amazon Web Services such as WordPress, ReactJS web pages, and NoSQL database solutions.
- Create and maintain virtual machines for Open-Source utilities.

Computer Community Services – Hampton, VA

10/2014

- Assemble computers and repair technologies for clients in the local area. Includes acquiring parts, replacing old hardware with industry standards, providing clients with user-friendly operating systems, software installation, and quality assurance.

Certification:

- Amazon Web Services Cloud Programming
- NoSQL and Database Management Systems
- Security + SY0-701 (Pending)

Coursework/Skills:

- User Interface
- Microsoft Power BI
- Java JDK 17
- Workstation Assembly & Maintenance
- Desktop/Server Assembly
- Microsoft Visual Studio
- C/C++
- HTML5/JavaScript/CSS
- Python
- Computer Hardware Maintenance
- Cloud Computing
- Windows, Linux, Unix
- Penetration Testing Cyber Security
- Shell scripting
- Tableau Data Analytics
- Visual Basic
- Practical Malware
- Network Forensics
- Remote Device Access
- Database Management Systems
- Network Device Communications
- Neural Networks
- Artificial Intelligence (Lambda, Amazon Lex)

References:

Dr. Muhammad – Jean.Muhammad@hamptonu.edu

Dr. Boonthum-Denecke – Chutima.Boonthum@hamptonu.edu

Dr. Coogan – Kevin.Coogan@hamptonu.edu